

TURBO CHARGE YOUR PERSONAL VISION

Aim:

Do your personal vision and company goals seem elusive – like a distant memory? Does it seem that you are constantly running round the hamster wheel, feeling frustrated and wanting to get off – to move yourself and the business forward?

This Workshop is designed for business leaders and stakeholders who want to seize the opportunity in the current market (when many of your competitors are feeling lost and looking down) to be re-energised and re-focused to inspire and drive your business forwards.

You will discover insights to:

- A new awareness of your own Personal Vision
- How this can fuel your Company Vision
- How you are currently stopping yourself
- A powerful insight to your personality drivers and how this is impacting on you as a business leader
- Use this new awareness as a 'turbo charger' to get you – and the business – moving

When:

This Workshop takes place with your executives at a time to suit you.

Speaker:

This Workshop is designed and delivered by Caroline Suggett, founder and Managing Director of ROM Consultancy Ltd www.rom-consultancy.co.uk Caroline has 17 years experience as a strategic new business consultant working with Boards, and one-to-one as an Executive Coach to support and develop leaders at the top of the organisation.
